“It inspires and motivates me to see how this competition seeks to constantly innovate, offering a better experience to swimmers and connecting in a unique way with the public. Swimming is a passion, the sport that unites us, inspires us and allows us to share great moments, like the ones we will surely live in this next edition of Villa de Mairena.”

— Jessica Vall, Former Spanish Olympic swimmer

“To compete in the Villa is to live a weekend of passion for swimming, where family and illusion mark the beginning of the summer and the final stretch of the season. A great party with a spectacular closing: the exciting Three Cultures Relay - a highly recommended experience!”

— Juanmi Rando, Former Spanish Olympic Swimmer
